The diagram shows a large white rectangular area enclosed by a blue border, which is itself inside a larger pink border. In the lower right portion of the white area, there is a smaller orange-bordered rectangle. This orange rectangle is labeled 'Address Imprint Area' and '4"x1.5"'. It contains the text 'Must have displayed distance before start of any other content.' Dimension lines with arrows indicate a 1/2" gap from the left and right sides of the orange rectangle to the blue border, and a 5/8" gap from the bottom of the orange rectangle to the blue border.
